To whom it may concern,

I have known Mr. Lathigee since 2006. We started as friends and for the next 8 years spent time together over many occasions. After these years of friendship I approached him with a business project I was starting in 2014.

Since then I have had the opportunity to, not only know him as a friend, but also as a business partner. During that time I was able to see firsthand his relentless work ethic as well as his passion and commitment to his investors. He was available 24/7 to help and advise in any way. Even after I bought out his shares earlier this year, he has continued to offer his unconditional support.

I have a high regard for Mr. Lathigee, not only for his high level of business acumen & intense focus to protect and support his investors, but also for the level of trustworthiness he brings to his business dealings.

I would refer him to anyone looking to do business or invest with him.

The fact that we remain friends, after 8 years of working closely together - speaks volumes as to his character and integrity.

Sincerely,

Jeff Clark
